The current pattern has completed in pre market trade with a print at 13.08. A downside gap still needs to be filled as noted from 12.17 to 12.26. Since the current pattern has completed and the 'D' target of 12.99 was exceeded, what can be expected in the near term?

Current open option statistics for November show a significant financial interest for option writers to see AUY shares close under 12.00 at option expiration on Friday, November 20th.
